

Burke Dunphy

Partner

EXPERIENCE

Ms. Dunphy joined the firm in 2013, bringing her experience in labor/management relations, financial restructuring, and bankruptcy to the Firm's Labor and Employment law practice. Since joining Sloan Sakai, she has conducted negotiations and provided advice on personnel and labor relations matters for public sector and non-profit employers. She has also represented public sector employers in fact-findings procedures under AB 646 and unfair practice charges.

RELATED EXPERIENCE

Prior to joining Sloan Sakai, Ms. Dunphy was an associate in the business reorganization and financial structuring practices of two New York law firms, where she represented both private and public sector clients in in-court and out-of-court restructurings.

Ms. Dunphy graduated Order of the Coif from the University of Pittsburgh Law School. During law school, Ms. Dunphy worked as a legal intern with Worcester County District Attorney's Office and as a summer associate in the financial restructuring and litigation departments of a New York law firm.
